AVATAR GOALS GRID

This powerful step will make every aspect of your marketing more effective. Seriously. At the end of the day, your clients' decision to (or not to) take action boils down to their level of pain or desire for pleasure. This exercise addresses both. Which is why it's bad to the bone.

THE AVATAR CURRENCY CALCULATOR

This tool is used to list all the important "currencies" or measures of value. First list your Core Currency - the primary "business you're in" from the Avatar Goals Grid. This will be the main category for your business i.e. web design, personal fitness, etc., and should not change based on your products or campaigns. Next, list all the currencies your product increases and decreases. Finally, decide which single currency your avatar wants to solve. And solve it!
